School Living Club

When I was little, I'd be walking around town in the afternoon during summer break, and sometimes I wouldn't see anyone else around for just a moment. I'd imagine that everyone had disappeared from town, and I'd think that I really wanted to have the entire town to myself, just like that.

I could stand around reading manga at the bookstore as much as I wanted. I could play as many video games as I wanted, and when I was hungry, I could go to the convenience store or the grocery store and just open snacks and cans of stuff. I could sleep wherever and whenever I wanted.

Doesn't that sound kind of nice? And if you had some like-minded friends with you, it would be the best.

So because of that (?), this time, we had a field trip. They went out to a shopping mall in this installment. Please look forward to the next volume of School-Live! with a new club member.

And thank you to everyone who picked up this book.

Thank you.

Norimitsu Kaihou.

Look forward to next time, when Yuki becomes a senpai!

Thank you very much for enjoying School-Live! Volume 2!
